I keep wanting more!

By Danielle S

I have been reading Robert's work since tumblr. He is definitely one of my favorite writers. I own all of his books (and all are great) but this one is something else. This one is far more beautiful than all his previous works combined. It is filled with such powerful yet simple prose, poetry and short stories. The thing about this book that put's it above all his previous work is the amount of detail he captures. From brokenness to loneliness to freedom to society's way. This book over seems like an attempt to define life for most of us in the 21th century. R. M. Drake beautifully writes for all of us. He is definitely one of the stronger voices for our current generation. As the times article reads. "r.m. drake is truly a genius among the crowd."

I recommend this book to everyone.

(I bought it on his site and signed too. Yay!)
