My boys (age 4 and 7) like minecraft and enjoyed reading this book

By pepperminta

My boys (age 4 and 7) like minecraft and enjoyed reading this book. But I read it out loud to my younger son and there was pretty much a typo on every page. Like "the're" or "heep"....they even spelled Matthew wrong and put "mathew" on one page. When we read it we each had a pencil in hand it was like a game to see who could find the next error. Honest.

The story is ok, but it's very, very poorly edited. In fact I'm not sure if anyone read it through before publishing. HA! If they had someone spend 15-20 min. editing it would have been a little better. Poor spelling, poor grammar, a lot of inconsistencies. Otherwise...3 stars. Notch bless you for trying. Next time get an editor perhaps.....

Makes him want to read

By Kati

So I have never read the comic but it has helped my 3rd grader take up an interest in reading. That makes it a winner in my book :)

so all the tiny details were fantastic to him

By Amazon Customer

If it were up to just me, I would rate this 2 stars. The story is poorly written, the comic has editing problems (repeated panels, 2 panels in the wrong order at one point), and there just isn't a whole lot of content to the story to begin with.

BUT my 10 year old son loves it! He loves playing Minecraft, so all the tiny details were fantastic to him. And he didn't care that the story was vapid. Plus, it made him want to sit and read!

So if you have a Minecraft loving boy or girl in your life, chances are they will love this book, too.
