From the moment we met them they were like friends we had known for years

By Tom Morse

My wife and I first met Dee and Warren on Royal Caribbean's Mariner of the Seas in May 2004, when my wife participated in that year's "Dee Gruenig Cruise". Often when you meet "celebrities" they put on a public face while with the group, but can be very stand-offish and private when away from the group. Not so with Dee and Warren. From the moment we met them they were like friends we had known for years, and that friendship has continued to this day. We really enjoyed reading "Invitations Everywhere!" and learning all about what went on behind the scenes in Dee and Warren's lives. What meant the most to us was that Dee was always willing to give credit to others, and was never afraid to pray about what to do and to put her faith and trust in God, which was so well expressed in Chapter 18 - "Invitation to Experience God's Loving Protection". My invitation to you is for you to read "Invitations Everywhere!" if you want to be uplifted.

Encouraging and uplifting read!

By K. T. Young

This book is, in itself, an invitation to the reader -- not simply to follow a husband and wife's journey through a creative and fulfilling life--but an invitation to trust in God's provision and guidance in your own life. Invitations are indeed everywhere, if we open our eyes and hearts to them.

I received my book Friday and couldn't put it down ...

By RASH

I received my book Friday and couldn't put it down until I finished 3/4 of it. Finished it today. Each quote at the beginning of a chapter "invited" me in and each positive statement at the end of a chapter perked my interest to look ahead to another adventure. Thank you C.W. and Dee
