seeker or searching

By Lilipod

Whether you're a oldie or a newbie or not a christian at all, this little book will speak to your heart.

As I read it, it truly got better and better. One may think"where is this going", well it's going to the heart of the matter.

Our walk at times gets tiring, seems unfulfilled or if you're not walking yourself you may wonder why does that "christian" keep bugging me, I am satisfied with my life as it is. Well in this small venture you will definitely find out why.

It's not preachy it's practical living for the Lord, laced with scripture and thoughtfully planted as you read. Having an alive relationship is the core and worth digging for over a lifetime. Enjoy I did.

Outstanding Overview

By tammik

I read this book in a couple of hours. The position the author takes is clear. Its a very straight forward book giving wonderful insights into the the workings of Christ in our lives. I really enjoyed the way he made it possible to see how our daily lives can be so different with just an open heart and an acceptance of Gods favor. Its an easy read with an enormous amount of illuminating information. Everyone should read it.

God's Heartbeat

By Spunky

This book has been a blessing to me. I have read it four times in a week and each time, something new is birthed in my heart. This book is easy to read, easy to understand and very applicable for your daily walk with God. I believe Mr. Ellison has heard God's heartbeat and penned what he heard. Order your blessing!
