"Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep,..."

By frances

Mr. Benedict Farley wants M. Poirot's advice,..but when it doesn't keep him from dying, that doesn't sit well with Hercule. Surely you can't just dream yourself to death, so to speak,.. or can you? Leave it to our favorite little Belgium sleuth to solve this mystery,..don't you just love that little guy?

The Dream

By Michael R. Larsen

I picked up quite a few of Ms. Christie's short stories, all for a very low price, I was quite pleased with all of them, they do not have the detailed background as her longer works, but she never fails to please. Plot is very good, and writing excellent.

The Dream is Not Dreamy

By Emma Schrader

I was not particularly impressed with this story. It is really quite predictable and blah....that's all I can say and especially since it's been a while since I read it, and can't even remember anything outstanding about it.
