Walk through any Scottish Highland glen today, and you will find hundreds of ruined cottages, abandoned many decades before, sometimes through necessity, and often through force.

This is a fictional story, but set against the background of the Highland clearances, following just a few of those affected by those awful times; their lives, their loves, their losses. Grief and joy meld with the cruelty and camaraderie of a proud and industrious people who suffered what, in the 21st Century, would be termed ethnic cleansing of the Scottish clans.

Ewan and Catriona's newly married life is torn asunder by the Anglo - Mysore wars, and thereafter, by the greed and cruelty of a young pretentious woman.

Their life's journey takes them to the new and emergent nation of the United States of America, where new lives can begin.

And all because of a young man's aspirations to the throne of the United Kingdom of Great Britain in 1745
