Review

"A 'sit down together and read aloud together' story for all ages, one that will be treasured for a long time. Written in the fashion of the Brothers Grimm. An epic journey that makes fables and fairy tales well cherished. It's also a quest to find out what's good and evil in humanity and how one cannot judge a person's true character by the way they look. A classic fairy tale/fable told in the age-old art of storytelling. This story needs to be read aloud and shared as a family. Lots of hidden messages and lessons to be learned. Outstanding!" --Emily-Jane Hills Orford for "Readers' Favorite"

This is a novel and fantasy chapter book for children, teens and adults. Recommended age is 9 and up. It is an exciting adventure with a good moral and an inspiring ending, a story full of tenderness, action, thrill, and mystery. Two young siblings are on a mission, a quest to save their town from darkness. They need to find seven hidden treasures that were stolen from the king's castle by an evil witch, and were hidden in a mysterious forest. These treasures brought light to the city from the castle's tall towers, especially during moonless night. The king needed an honest servant to carry forth this mission. Two young siblings will go through difficulties, fight a battle, and choose between good and evil to get to the castle. In the end, good will prevail, children will have learned good moral lessons, and most importantly, they will find the treasures and help their city recover its light.

An amazing book!!!

By nicole venant-gutierrez

Have you ever read an action,adventure,and mystery all in one book? If you haven't the Seven Hidden Treasures is the book for you! This book is about a twelve year old and her brother looking for seven stolen treasures.Along the way there is a gray witch which will confuse you into following her. She can transform into a pretty woman and trick you.After my cousin gave it to me I didn't want to read it but turns out after I finished I wanted to read it again!I sadly rated a five star because that was the max but, In my mind I gave it a ten star out of five stars!I think 8 years to 18 years will enjoy it. Don't take my word for it...READ IT!!! - Mario, age 10
