Could be better.

By Claudia L Aristizabal

I love all of the series. I like that they are bilingual, so that Both my husband and I can read it in our native languages. We have a lot of books on English that I translate on my head, so I can read them to my daughter. My problem with this book is the spanish wording. I know this book is mean for older kids, but I read it to my 2 year old and I don't like that they translate the word bully for maton (which means killer in spanish). They used the word through most of the book. I personally replace bully for abusivo, which I think is a better fit and less intimidating for my litle one.
