I had been thinking about writing this book for a couple of years before I even started it. I was very hesitant about because I knew it would open long buried wounds. It was easy enough at first, but when I started getting into my combat experiences I woke up my nervous system and caused some neurological reaction that put me out of commission for a while. I have been a student of the Bible since 1996 and have believed and followed Jesus Christ since. Let it be noted here that the essence of this book is the saving Grace of God and that I often wondered How I made it through war when so many others didn't. I was originally diagnosed with Post traumatic stress in 1983. I was given a 10% disability rating then. It wasn't until 1999 when I had a real life flashback that I knew I was in trouble. Three months later I was given a 70% disability rating and a month later 100% disability. I had to retire and go on medication. I was diagnosed with chronic and severe depression and anxiety, and Post Traumatic Stress. This book is based on that discovery and experience afterward.

He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He *said to him, "Tend My lambs." 16 He *said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He *said to him, "Shepherd My sheep." 17 He *said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus *said to him, "Tend My sheep.
